Research & Publication Ethics

Publication Ethics

Code of Publishing Ethics

All Negah Journals are committed to apply ethics of publication, based on the COPE's Code of Conduct and Best Practices. You may find the journal's code of publication ethics here.

Negah Guidelines and Flowcharts on Publication Ethics

Negah institute for Scientific Communication is committed to follow and apply guidelines and flowcharts of Committee on Publication Ethics in designing Negah Journals' reviewing and publishing process and dealing with their problems. The guidelines and flowcharts are designed to help authors, editors, and reviewers follow COPE's Code of Conduct and implement their advice when faced with cases of suspected misconduct.

Negah Standards for Authors

Negah Institute for Scientific Communication is committed to follow and apply “International Standards for Authors” of Committee on Publication Ethics in designing and leading Negah Journals’ reviewing and publishing process and dealing with their problems. You may find the International Standards for Authors, here.

Negah Standards for Editors

Negah Institute for Scientific Communication is committed to follow and apply “International Standards for Editors” of Committee on Publication Ethics in designing and leading Negah Journals’ reviewing and publishing process and dealing with their problems. You may find the International Standards for Editors, here.

Conflict of Interest

Negah Institute for Scientific Communication is committed to apply ICMJE recommendation on “Author Responsibilities—Conflicts of Interest” in Negah Journals for authors’ conflict of interest issues.

Authors should disclose, at the time of submission, information on financial conflicts of interest or other interests that may influence the manuscript. Authors should declare sources of funding for the work undertaken, too. Thus, completion and signing the ICMJE Form for Disclosure of Potential Conflicts of Interest is necessary for all authors and the articles submission won’t be accepted without filling this form in Negah Journals. You may find conflict of interest policy here.

Policies and Guidelines of Peer Review

Negah Institute for Scientific Communication is committed to apply double-blind peer reviewing process, based on the COPE's Code of Conduct and Best Practices and ICMJE's Recommendations for the Conduct, Reporting, Editing and Publication of Scholarly Work in Medical Journals in Negah Journals.

Ethical Principles for Research

Ethical Principles for Medical Research

With regard to medical studies, Negah Institute for Scientific Communication is committed to apply ethics of research, based on the Declaration of Helsinki: Statement of Ethical Principles for Medical Research and ICMJE's Recommendations for the Conduct, Reporting, Editing and Publication of Scholarly Work in Medical Journals.

Ethical Principles for Psychological Research

In psychological studies, Negah Institute for Scientific Communication is committed to apply ethics of research, based on American Psychological Association's Ethical Principles of Psychologists and Code of Conduct in Negah Journals.

Open Access Policy

Our publishing policy in Negah Institute for Scientific Communication considers research for the benefit of mankind. Research is the product of an investment by society and its fruits should be shared by all people without borders or discrimination and serve society universally and in a transparent fashion. That is why Negah provides free online and open access to all of its research publications. In this regard, all the publishing costs are supported by the journals' owners, so authors can download and share the articles free of charge.

Copyright

Under Bethesda Statement on Open Access Publishing (June 20, 2003), Negah Journals are fully compliant with open access mandates, by publishing its articles under the Creative Commons — Attribution-NonCommercial licence (CC-BY-NC).
